

Services

We have a variety of services specifically designed to give you the most cost effective way to receive exposure on high traffic book review sites which will market your book.

Pick the Virtual Book Review Network that you and your book deserve!

Did your promotional efforts miss the mark on your release date?

Not to worry - no book is too old for us to review. If you have a good book, we don't care when it was published!

Book Review Services

The Virtual Book Review Network (VBRN) offers exposure on over Ten (10) highly ranked book review sites in both general (Fiction or Non-Fiction) and genre specific (Romance, Young Adult, etc) websites.

Our reviews can be used in whole or excerpts with credit given to the reviewer and VirtualBookReviewNetwork.com

Pick from any of our Standard Programs here - AND, subscribe to the left under Special Promotions to receive information on limited special offers we run periodically and which are unannounced to the public! Don't miss out - be sure to sign up today.

Author Interviews

If you don't have a website, let our Author Interviews give you a place to market your book. Have a website? You'll find benefit from our personal interview placement which includes the Author's photo, the Author's bio, your book summary and a book review.

Find out the details here.

Press Releases for Authors

When you choose a book review program or author interview with us, your placement includes press release distribution AND placement on an additional website of our which is pressreleasesforbooks.com

If you aren't doing a book review program or author interview with us, we can still create and issue a press release for your book.

More details here.